

Qatar Business Women's Award 2010/2011

Qatar Business Women's Forum presents the opportunity for all ladies to be recognised for their contribution to Qatar. This year the QBWA not only offers the opportunity to apply for the QBWA 2010/2011 Award but in so doing receive the International Business and Professional Award.

QBWA 2010/2011 builds on the success to date, recognising the importance of women's development & the role of QBWF to the economy of Qatar.

Applicants for the QBWA 2010/2011 Award are required to submit their application against the 5 criteria of Leadership, Future Goals and Financial Performance, Business, Professional and Career Achievements, Community Contribution and Participation and Innovation. Applicants can either;

Option 1: Apply for QBWA 2010/2011 and achieve the International Women's Business and Professional Award by participating; in the Awareness Session followed by the 3 workshops and submit the applications against the 5 criteria, (as listed above), along with work completed in the sessions. The Award is accredited by the Institute of Leadership and Management.

Option 2: Make a direct application. Applicants would find it help to attend a 'How to apply?' Session

The Programme will be run by The Development Partnership, United Kingdom. Please register to your interest at: irene@tdp.eu.com, www.tdp.eu.com. 00971 4 3902193; 0044 1744 602563
